Found them all? Well done! Now hurry to the front desk to rescue Lyra and Pantalaimon. Use the Alethiometer to crack the code. First you must set your Alethiometer by solving the following riddle:

I am the first of Amber and the last of Lyra. Line me up with a sailor's tattoo.

Use the alethiometer with the cyphers you've collected to spell out the missing word.

Hooray! You've saved them just in time! Take a picture of yourself with Lyra and Pantalaimon. You can post it to our social media including #isavedlyra @glynnevivian
